Meena Abraham, DrPH, MPH
Executive Director, MedChi Center for a Healthy Maryland

Meena Abraham, DrPH, MPH graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Biology from the University of Maryland Baltimore County. She completed the Master of Public Health degree from the Johns Hopkins School of Public Health in 1997, and the Doctor of Public Health in 2006. The dissertation examined black-white differences in birth weight and gestational age outcomes. She has worked at MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society since 1998, managing various maternal and child health projects. In May 2004, she was appointed the Executive Director of the MedChi Foundation. The Foundation was subsequently reorganized to administer all public health and physician quality programs at MedChi, and renamed the Center for a Healthy Maryland to better reflect its mission to achieve health goals in Maryland.
